

Money Plant

They are extremely hardy houseplants that anyone can keep alive, and will produce large yellow and green leaves on trailing vines.

Choose a spot that is sunny, but without too much direct light, or you can put up a pothos in a lower light area if that's what works best.

VASTU SHASTRA TIPS FOR GROWING MONEY PLANT INDOORS

Money plant gives maximum benefits when it is grown inside the house, rather than outside the house. Grow it in a bottle or a mini jar. If a money plant is kept outside the house, make sure it is kept away from direct sunlight.

Keep it in a shaded area.

The belief, according to Vastu, is that greener the money plant, the more the chances of getting wealth into your home. If your money plant has lush foliage, it increases your wealth.

Keep your money plant along the boundary of your house/border of your flat. The money plant is an interior plant, not to be kept outside as per Vastu Shastra principles. You can keep it on the boundary of the flat/house. For instance, the boundary of a flat would be a window sill. The plant emits a lot of positive energy.

Money plant is one of the most popular indoor plants in India. The heart-shaped leaves of money plant add lushness to the decor without any mess & dirt. It has ornamental appeal as well as a number of health benefits as it is also known as natural air purifier. Money plant is also believed to bring long-lasting friendship, due its heart-shaped leaves. Moreover, according to Vastu, money plant attracts positive energy along with luck, wealth and prosperity which makes it more auspicious as an indoor plant. If you are planning to bring a money plant home, follow these Vastu guidelines to place it at the right place.

Where to keep money plant at home, as per Vastu?

Living room: According to various Vastu experts, money plant should be kept in the south-east corner of the room for attracting luck and prosperity. Since this direction is ruled by planet Venus and Lord Ganesha, both of them symbolise wealth and luck. Right placement of money plant is very important to see its positive effect in your life. It is believed that Lord Ganesha takes away bad luck from the resident and showers him with wealth and prosperity.

Bedroom: Money plant can be kept in the bedroom as well on the left or right side of the bed but away from the footrest or headrest.

Placing a money plant in the bedroom helps avoid arguments and also helps in reducing sleep disorders.

Directions To Avoid: Placing the plant in north or east walls or north-east corner is not suitable, according to the Vastu as it may result in loss of money, health issues and conflicts. Since Jupiter and Venus rules the north-east direction, they are not compatible with each other and may result in losses.

Avoid East-West Direction: Money plant should never be kept in the east-west direction of the house or room, as it could lead to trouble in the form of financial problems, arguments and discord between married couples.

In the corners: According to the Vastu, sharp corners are source of anxiety and negativity. To nullify the negative effects, money plants can be placed in corners, which will also minimise the stress at home.

Bathroom: Since money plants are easy to grow, they can easily grow in humid corners such as bathrooms. As per Vastu, keeping the money plant in a bathroom will do no harm. You can maintain it easily, if your bathroom gets a considerable amount of direct or indirect sunlight.

Near Electronics, Gadgets: Money plants has the capability to absorb radiations and therefore can be placed near television or computers or Wi-Fi routers.

Note: As per Vastu, money plant should always be kept inside the house and not in the garden area.

Dos & Don'ts for keeping money plant at home

- Avoid placing the money plant near red objects. Make sure that the money plant is not kept next to any red coloured items, or on red surfaces.
- Avoid placing your money plant near the kitchen. Keeping it near these objects may take away the luck and wealth that the money plant brings.
- For optimum positive effects, grow the money plant in a green or blue vase. This will invite more wealth and help to remove any obstacles in the flow of energy. It makes more space for positive energy flow.
- Make sure that the leaves do not touch the ground. Once the money plant has grown, make sure you prune it and keep it neat. Make sure the leaves or stems of your money plant are not falling on to the ground, as it is considered highly inauspicious.

- Ensure that your money plant grows upwards. If planted in a pot, use a plant pole/moss stick for growing your money plant. Coco poles are ideal as they are porous allowing high moisture retention and allowing the roots of the plant to grip naturally into the coir fibre. You can even use a bamboo as support for your money plant.
- Do not let anyone else prune your money plant, not even close friends or neighbours. Allowing them to prune it, signifies giving away your wealth to someone.
- If you are placing money plant in south-east direction, avoid placing it in a water vessel and instead plant it in soil and use a brown coloured pot. You can also darker shades of red.
- Placing money plant in bedroom can help you boost your mood and enthusiasm. It can help in calming your mind after a stressful day.

- Money plant also controls indoor humidity levels which improves the temperature indoor.
- If you are planting money plant in a bedroom, keep the plant at least 5 feet away from the bed.
